CARDNET – ITALIAN CARDIOLOGY NETWORK TO USE ECEPTIONIST®

Milan, Italy – Cardnet, the Italian Cardiology Hospital Network, will begin using the Eceptionist® Internet based case management and appointment scheduling system. The Milan, Italy company will be supported by Eceptionist's Italian customer TelBios S.p.A., the company announced today.

Eceptionist® allows the Cardnet Cardiology Hospital Network of twelve cardiology and cardio-surgery hospitals in the Lombardia region and one hospital in the Valle d'Aosta region of Italy to schedule cardiology consultations and manage the transfer of electronic patient records.

"Eceptionist® allows TelBios to provide Cardnet with advanced cardiology services for the people of the Lombardia and Valle d'Aosta regions of Italy where such services were previously unavailable," stated Mr. Fabio Duchini, Marketing Manager of TelBios.

"With this initiative, TelBios is reaffirming its role as Italy's leading telemedicine service provider collaborating with local health care authorities and institutions", said Dr. Alberto Golinelli, Managing Director of TelBios.

"Eceptionist® is proud to enable Cardnet to deliver life saving cardiology services to the people of Italy," said an Eceptionist representative.

"As Eceptionist's market share continues to expand in Europe, we are honoured to help improve the lives of the people of the European Union."

Cardnet is a cardiology and cardio-surgery network comprised of twelve hospitals in the Lombardia and Valle d'Aosta regions of Italy. Headquartered in Milan, Cardnet's network includes cardiology and cardio-surgery centers in the Italian cities of Milan, Pavia, Mantova, Brescia, Lecco and Cremona.
